

Hindu - MetroPlus Weekend

On the food trail

DEALS Buffets, hampers and cheesy pizzas galore

Pizza Hut has introduced the Golden Surprise, an innovative range of stuffed crust pizzas with a filling baked into the edge. The filling comes in two options – fresh cajun paneer and spicy chicken sausage baked into the pizza. The pizzas in this new section offers four variants in the vegetarian and the non-vegetarian section. The pizzas serve two to three, with prices starting at Rs. 265 (with the cajun paneer filling) and Rs. 325 (for the spicy chicken sausage filling).

The Golden Surprise range of pizzas will be available across all Pizza Hut outlets and can also be ordered at home by calling 3988-3988.

Boca Grande, in Koramangala, is offering the Weekend Breakfast Buffet. The buffet offers a “king-sized English breakfast buffet” with an assortment of delicacies like sausages, baked beans, cereals, Danish pastries, crepes, waffles, muffins, fresh fruits, fresh juice, and so on. The place also offers a live counter with omelettes and scrambled eggs. Dishes will also be customised to your needs.

The buffet is priced at Rs. 175, will be on between 8.30 a.m. to noon every weekend. For details, call 41110889/41105183.

Inchina is also offering a daily

IN REVERSE Stuffed crust pizza

buffet for Rs. 199. The menu offers two vegetarian and two-non vegetarian starters, four assorted salads, two soups, main course and desserts and Chinese tea. To give more value add on weekends the lunch buffet on Saturdays and Sundays are priced at Rs. 299 and the menu offers a few more dishes in every section. For reservations call Paul Balraj on 9008001194.

The pastry shop at The Lalit Ashok is offering Christmas hamper, which will be available from December 17. The hampers offer cake, plum pudding, mince pies, Yule logs, assorted Tartes, and so on with or without wine priced between Rs. 2,300 and Rs. 2,000. Regular Hampers with cookies, mince pie, plum cakes, and chocolates with or without wine come at Rs. 1,850 on wards. There are also custom made hampers for Rs. 1,000 and above. For details call 30527777.