What's HOT

TUSCAN TASTES IN THE CAPITAL

It's the greatest comfort food ever that's got even better, now with an Italian accent. Available in a thin-crust avatar, these hand-stretched pizzas have gone gourmet with a variety of extravagant Italian toppings. At a recently held Chef's Table led by chef Arjyo Banerjee, Head Chef, Pizza Hut, an entire range of Tuscani Singles pizzas, appetisers and desserts were unveiled. For the uninitiated, the range of pizzas includes include eight vegetarian and non vegetarian versions. So from an authentic Margherita with ripe tomatoes, basil and mozzarella, Gardiner with a confluence of Mediterranean veggies and parmesan, Verde with a balsamic glaze and gouda cheese to Florence chicken with smoked chicken, mushrooms and peppers and Pollo Heaven with pesto cream sauce — these Italian staples have been given a real hot Italian makeover. "The Chef's Table is a personal passion. For me, it is always a pleasure to play with new recipes, infusing them with inspirations," said Chef Banerjee. And the event has truly been a great opportunity to interact with people who are food connoisseurs in the true sense of the term. So, what are you waiting for, bite into the goodness of Tuscany, right here in Delhi!
