

International flavours

RELISHING dishes from around the globe is a treat for all food lovers. To make this global food experience a pure delight, Pizza Hut celebrates the World Food Fest to bring the best dishes from around the world to India.

The special menu created for the festival by chefs after much thought comprises appetisers like Arabic chicken sandwich and Mexican cheese tortillas. There are delicious salads and pasta options too. Pizzas being the outlets' speciality, enjoy paneer el rancho pizza (Mexico), Arabic chicken pizza (Lebanon), chilly chicken pizza (China) and more. Niren Chaudhary, managing director, Pizza Hut India said, "With the fest we aim to redefine eat-a-tainment, a concept pioneered by us. A new exotic international menu and live entertainment will make it an exciting season for all our customers."

The employees too will host a new look, emphasising upon the menu which apart from the appetisers and main meal has beverages like iced green apple cooler and iced tea with vanilla ice-cream as well as scrumptious deserts. Among the deserts, Pizza Hut Royale, an all-American sundae of brownie, apples and vanilla ice-cream topped with strawberry sauce is a must try. Other options are Alphonso and cream, a scoop of rich and creamy Alphonso sorbet with a cookie and almond praline, a scoop of almond and caramel ice-cream served with a cookie.

Aroma Sah