Pricing and Payment

The price of Pizza Hut India products in all states where PH franchise is operating its restaurants is exclusive of the Goods and Services Tax (GST) at applicable rates on the Site.

To avoid difficulties in calculation of tax payable and facilitate ease of payment of tax, Pizza Hut India may round off applicable tax amount to the nearest rupee as per normal rounding off of tax liability method prescribed under the provisions of Section 170 of the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017.

The price of Pizza Hut India’s products and services is exclusive of ‘Restaurant Handling’ charges. The customer is liable to pay Restaurant Handling charges (on the order placed through Pizza Hut Home Delivery) as applicable in that particular area.

Upon delivery, customer shall pay in cash all charges, including but not limited to Restaurant Handling charges mentioned above, incurred in connection with the order. Alternately, while placing the order on the eligible Pizza Hut Home Delivery Service channels, customers may choose the online payment option, upon which they shall be redirected to an external payment gateway, on which they are required to follow the payment gateway's separate instructions for effecting online payment. The payment gateway is not under Our purview, control or discretion, and We are not responsible for and shall not be liable to any extent or in any manner for any payment-related or internet-related issues faced by customers in relation to online payments including payment refunds, and customers shall indemnify and keep Us and Our affiliates fully and effectively indemnified in this regard.

In case the order which is paid through digital payment method is cancelled due to non-availability of the ordered product at the restaurant or any unforeseen circumstance which renders the order fulfilment impossible on Our part or the restaurant, the amount will be returned by reversing the transaction by the restaurant. This refund will be returned on the actual source within 10-14 working days. However, We are not responsible for any delay on the bank's side or on third party payment gateway's side.

Carry Bags: We encourage Our customers to carry their own carry-bags, while placing the orders at our physical stores. This small gesture will go a long way in saving the environment. However, if the customer still wishes to exercise the option of availing a carry bag provided by us, please note that such paper carry-bags are chargeable by the restaurants. Such chargeable paper carry-bags provided by the restaurant at the request of the customer typically do not carry the Pizza Hut brand name and are charged to merely recover the cost of the carry bag which does not form part of the product cost.

For the home-delivery orders placed via Our Site, the price of the carry bags is mentioned in the invoice value at the checkout page as part of Restaurant Handling Charges, and You are requested to please ensure that You review the charges before finalizing Your cart and placing the order.
